

University of California Botanical Garden at Berkeley Research Facilities Request Form

Date: _____

Name of investigator: _____

UCB affiliation (e.g. faculty, staff, grad student, etc.): _____

If student, please provide advisor's name: _____

Department address: _____

Phone: _____ e-mail: _____

Nature of research project:

Plant species to be grown (if applicable):

Project duration: _____

Location of research project in the Garden and amount of space to be used:

Special cultural requirements:

In most cases, the Garden staff will water plants grown for research projects, but researchers are expected to do their own weeding and transplanting. Research projects will be charged for the use of some expendable materials. In general, the Garden will supply reusable materials such as clay pots and soil in limited quantities.

Return this form to:

Clare Loughran, Curator and Conservation Officer

UC Botanical Garden at Berkeley,

200 Centennial Dr., Berkeley, CA 94720-5045

Phone: (510) 643-8040, email: loughran@berkeley.edu

Office use only: Date received _____ Approved _____ (by): _____